

Dream Away

Imperia

Dreaming (dreaming), I am dreaming that I'm flying away
jumping from roof to roof.

For every time
someone tried to harm me,
I just fly away (fly away)
spread my wings and fly away.

If tomorrow never comes I'll dream this dream forevermore
without waking up,
and have to think it was only a dream.
Then my dream becomes my eternity
then my dream becomes my reality.

No more hurt, no more pain
no more sorrow, no more anger.

So now I just dream away
to feel safe again.
I am dreaming, I am flying.

I wish it was my real life that was safe and good
and that my smiles were as many on a day
as stars at night,
so I just dream away, dream away.

No more hurt, no more pain
no more sorrow, no more anger

So now I just dream away
to feel safe again. [x2]

Real life is my nightmare
and I cannot wait
'til the night comes
where I can close my eyes and dream away.

I am dreaming, I am flying
I am dreaming, I am flying.

No more hurt, no more pain
no more sorrow, no more anger.

So now I just dream away,
to feel safe again. [x4]
