

Mother

Imperia

Are you in heaven now?
It's the rain of tears, from heaven and eyes
Are you, in heaven now?

It is your breath, I feel I breathing

Mother, mother why did you have to leave me now
Mother, mother why did you have to die
Mother, mother, I cry, I cry
But nothing, can never bring you back to me again

Are you in heaven now?
Is it your warmth, I feel from the sun
Dread dreams you never could find
I find them, and make them real

Mother, mother why did you have to leave me now
Mother, mother why did you have to die
Mother, mother, I cry, I cry
But nothing, can ever bring you back to me again
Nothing, can ever bring you back to me again
