While I Am Still Here

Imperia

Maybe I no more will see a sunrise
Maybe I no more will see the full moon
The beautiful blue ocean

And feel the summer breeze in my face
May I no more
Will dance after the music in my head

Will I ever spread
My fragile butterfly wings in free air?

Wanna see the light
In those eyes again
Wanna see the light
In those eyes again

While I'm still here
While I'm still here
While I'm still here

Maybe I no more will be embraced
In love's caring arms
And be kissed my tears away

Will I ever spread
My fragile butterfly wings in free air?

Wanna see the light
In those eyes again
Wanna see the light
In those eyes again

While I'm still here
Wanna feel your heatbeat next to mine
At least for one more time

While I'm still here
While I'm still here
While I'm still here

Maybe I no more will see again
And will play along (along)
In the pouring rain

But as long as I do breathe
I wanna live my life, live my life
As tomorrow maybe don't appear
But as long as I do breathe
I wanna live my life
As tomorrow maybe don't appear

Wanna see the light
In those eyes again
Wanna see the light
In those eyes again
Wanna see the light
In those eyes again

While I'm still here
Wanna feel your heatbeat next to mine
At least for one more time

While I'm still here
While I'm still here (while I'm still here)
Wanna feel your heatbeat next to mine
At least for one more time (one more time)
While I'm still here (while I'm still here)

Will I ever spread my butterfly wings?
Will I ever again spread my butterfly wings?
