Call My Name

In Flames

You don't remember
So I need to figure it out
But the memories fade
The truth is that I'm not so sure
If we'll make it at all
I can't even trust myself

I used to have it all
Until I lost control
I used to have it all
Until I lost control

Why don't you call my name?
Let it bounce between the walls
Through the halls of time
A sign for me to go by
So find me the wormhole
So that I can be by your side

Sometimes I'm angry
And some days I'm totally numb
I just wanna give it all up

Why don't you call my name?
Let it bounce between the walls
Through the halls of time
A sign for me to go by
So find me the wormhole
So that I can be by your side

I used to have it all
Until I lost control
I used to have it all
Until I lost control

Why don't you call my name?
Let it bounce between the walls
Through the halls of time
A sign for me to go by
So find me the wormhole
So that I can be by your side

So find me the wormhole
So that I can be by your side
So find me the wormhole
So that I can be by your side

Until I lost control
Until I lost control
