

In the house of dogs
(Arf arf)
In the house of dogs
Fighting over dead gods
Ripping meat from thrones like flesh from bones

Tied up and chained down
But is this everything we can be?
When the edge of the cage is seen
Then we know the lines by which we are free
When all the barking beasts have finally been unleashed
Who's in the ground and who's the big dog now?
When the edge of the cage is seen
Then we know the lines by which we are free

Pound for pound, wolf or hound
Never fall, never back down
I won't obey, I won't obey
Eye for eye, live or die
Animals on the inside
I won't obey
There's no masters in the house of dogs

Trapped in their jaws
Cutting false beliefs with rotten teeth

Fed up and forced out
But am I just too far down to see
When the edge of the cage is seen
Then we know the lines by which we are free

You're all shade with no light
You're all eyes with no sight
You're all dog and no fight
You're all bark and no bite

You're all bark and no bite
You ain't the only dog in the fight

Pound for pound, wolf or hound
Never fall, never back down
I won't obey, I won't obey
Eye for eye, live or die
Animals on the inside
I won't obey, I won't obey
Pound for pound, wolf or hound
Never fall, never back down
I won't obey, I won't obey
Eye for eye, live or die
Animals on the inside
I won't obey, I won't obey

There's no masters in the house of dogs
(Arf arf)
You ain't the only dog in the fight
