

Survival (The Chariot)

In Hearts Wake

One life to live to pay your daily fee. The labor for your love weighted with hours that never cease. They will tell you that you'll never make it.
Corruption lies within, never bow to forty thousand feet.
We will survive.
This is the only way we will make it out alive. We will survive. Unless you persevere you'll be left to rot behind.

Two deaths to die everything is closing in. Still pushing forward now you're standing on the edge. They still tell you that you'll never make it. The avaricious won't amend, you will be carried safely in the end. We will survive. This is the only way we will make it out alive. We will survive. Unless you persevere you'll be left to rot behind. The slaving wager leads men to more than war. Motherfucking bounce.
This is my survival. We will survive. We will survive.
