In Hearts Wake

Face down in the dirt with the taste of blood
Can't feel my soul, did I lose control?
No doubt, blacked out, left on the ground
Now the pressure builds, no time to kill

So I need a way to let it out, let it out
I need a blade to cut it out, cut it out
I'm at the edge of the darkness inside
But my shadow's getting harder to hide

Bury the pain
This grave I made
Drowning the shame when it breaks in waves
Every day's the same if you're trapped inside a cage
Don't be afraid
Release the rage

Locked down by the fear that always feeds
Knocked out by the night that never sleeps
I'm still waiting for a moment of peace
But there's a time to kill and there's a time to bleed

So I need a way to let it out, let it out
I need a blade to cut it out, cut it out
I'm at the edge of the darkness inside
But my shadow's getting harder to hide

Bury the pain
This grave I made
Drowning the shame when it breaks in waves
Every day's the same if you're trapped inside a cage
Don't be afraid
Release the rage

You've forgotten where the line's drawn
Shaking hands with a timebomb
Shaking hands with a timebomb
Shaking hands with a timebomb
Grinding teeth with your mask on Cause the weak never stand strong
You've forgotten where the line's drawn
Shaking hands with a timebomb

Shaking hands with a timebomb
Tick, tick, boom

Bury the pain
This grave I made
Drowning the shame when it breaks in waves
Every day's the same if you're trapped inside a cage
Don't be afraid
Release the rage

Don't be afraid
Release the rage
