

Heya

In Legend

Take up the fight for your personal aim
Go get possession of the ball in your game
The people's living's anyway not the same
So get yourself back in the ring!
Come bid defiance to your own common sense
Give up your habbit just to speak in defense
Your own potential is so fuckin' immense
So get yourself back in the ring!
Come on -
Don't call it your dream,
But make it your life!
Say hey, 2, 3, 4:

Heya -
You're the lodestar
So don't you dare to lose your aim
Hold on to all what you are -
'cause you are godsend!

It's your decision what you're living for
If you're a doer or a people's whore
If it's a never- or forevermore
So get yourself back in the ring!
Hey!
You think it's nonsense, no, I disagree!
The lord Himself gave you His warranty
That if you trust Him He's of certainty
So get yourself back in the ring!
Come on -
Don't call it your dream,
But make it your life!
Say hey, 2, 3, 4:

Heya -
You're the lodestar
So don't you dare to lose your aim
Hold on to all what you are -
'cause you are godsend!

Why don't you just come off your doubt?
Relieving all your mind -
Secure your confidence by choosing to be fine!
You can rely on Him to bail you out
His love is deep affined,
Why don't you overcome your fear and start to shine?
Don't call it your dream,
But make it your life!
Say hey, 2, 3, 4:

Heya -
You're the lodestar
So don't you dare to lose your aim
Hold on to all what you are -
'cause you are godsend!
