

Maybe

In Legend

The roads we walked
The rivers that we crossed
We've gone astray?
Maybe

The seas we sailed
The mountains that we climbed
One step too far?
Maybe

If only your heartbeat would stop drumming in silence
It echoes your name from afar
Way too far to spell
Maybe...

This is the end
We felt it all along
And still we say
Maybe

The things we shared
Could have been the wings to our hopes
Come what may
Maybe

And I still want to travel around

If only your heartbeat would stop drumming in silence
It echoes your name from afar
Way too far to spell
And you're way too far away...
If only your heartbeat would stop drumming in silence
It echoes your name from Way too far -
Ten thousand miles and you're still around!

...

Ten thousand miles with you on my mind!
