

I feel my heart beat in time with the clock ticks
Wondering why in the world I can't stop this Cos' you make me feel shameful, aching, it's painful

Don't keep me waiting for someone that's hateful (Someone that's hateful)

Standing in the rain doesn't feel the same
I was meant to learn the hard way
These emotions in my head, make me go insane
It was always meant to be this way

And oh no, I'm drowning in 2am
And oh no, over and over again
It's like heartbreak in the middle of winter
The time doesn't change, cos I'm with ya
And oh no, you're playing with my heart again
At 2am

I feel your heart missing mine and I can't breathe
But I open my eyes and realize it's electric
(It's electric)
You're always telling me I'm out of your reach
Saying that I'm too young to set you free
But you don't know
(You don't know)
That I know
(That I know)

Standing in the rain doesn't feel the same
I was meant to learn the hard way
These emotions in my head, make me go insane
It was always meant to be this way

And oh no, I'm drowning in 2am
And oh no, over and over again
It's like heart break in the middle of winter
The time doesn't change, cos I'm not with ya
And oh no, you're playing with my heart again
At 2am

Heartbreak in the middle of winter
The time doesn't change, cos I'm not with ya
(I'm not with ya)
(You're playing with my heart again)
Standing in the rain doesn't feel the same
I was meant to learn the hard way
These emotions in my head make me go insane
It was always meant to be this way

And oh no, I'm drowning in 2am
And oh no, over and over again
It's like heartbreak in the middle of winter
