

Girl, you and I
We've been over and over this question a million times
Don't know why

Your father is hard to impress
Even though I try
Just give it time
I'll be yours, you'll be mine
Eventually he's gonna see
That you belong with me

No need to doubt it, no need to doubt it
We'll be together, find a way around it
Can't live without ya, can't live without ya
Trust me baby
Imma make your daddy like me

Imma make your daddy like me
I'll change his mind girl, yeah you gon' see
Imma make your daddy like me
Imma make your daddy like me

Just wait and see
I'll treat you so good, yeah the guy will fall in love with me
It won't be long
We won't need to sneak out the back way until he's gone
Don't give up now
I promise I'll turn this around
Eventually he's gonna see
That you belong with me

No need to doubt it, no need to doubt it
We'll be together, find a way around it
Can't live without ya, can't live without ya
Trust me baby
Imma make your daddy like me

Imma make your daddy like me
I'll change his mind girl, yeah you gon' see
Imma make your daddy like me
Imma make your daddy like me

I'll treat you like a lady
And I promise he gonna like me
I'll treat you like a lady
And I promise he gonna like me

Imma make your daddy like me
Imma make your daddy like me
Imma make your daddy like me
I'll change his mind girl, yeah you gon' see
Imma make your daddy like me
Imma make your daddy like me
