

She's Rock N Roll

In Stereo

Time stops when I see you
Tight jeans and reckless hair do
The kinda girl want to fall for forever, whatever
The way she's rocking to the beat
The converse platforms on her feet
She don't think she's cover girl material
Ain't that delusional

Hey! Ho! Stereo!
Saying something she don't know
She's everything everything I dream
She's rock n roll to me
Hey! Ho! Rock n roll!
She's the crowd at every show
Singing back from the front row
To me
She's rock n roll to me

She's every line in every verse
Got me falling in reverse
The kinda girl I want forever whatever
She's every songs we'd ever write
She's everyday and every night
Cover girl inside my eyes
But she's rock and roll tonight
And I can't wait to make her mine

Hey! Ho! Stereo!
Saying something she don't know
She's everything everything I dream
She's rock n roll to me
Hey! Ho! Rock n roll!
She's the crowd at every show
Singing back from the front row
She's rock n roll to me

There she is again outside, staring with those piercing eyes
If only she knew what I'm feeling tonight
It's right after the show
And I just want her to know
Girl I gotta let ya know
You're an angel in my eyes

Hey! Ho! Stereo!
Saying something she don't know
She's everything everything I dream
She's rock n roll to me
Hey! Ho! Rock n roll!
She's the crowd at every show
Singing back from the front row
She's rock n roll to me

She's rock n roll to me
