

Another Night

In Strict Confidence

Push me lover
See i'm bleeding
Losing grip
And falling down

I can't withstand
All your luring
Giving in to you
I drown

Kiss me lover
See i'm burning
Fill the goblet
Spill the wine

Pour over me
The tears of heaven
Drink them from
The skin of mine

Even if you win this battle
And i surrender in this fight
Keep in mind
My sweetest lover
You breath with me
In this night

Hold me lover
See i'm falling
Angels looking down on me
In your arms
I'm sinking slowly
Into a neverending sea

Tell me lover
Are you lying?
Are you really on my side?
Get the hammer
Get the chissel
Nail me to that cross tonight

Even if you win this battle
And i surrender in this fight
Keep in mind
My sweetest lover
I might win another night

Help me jesus
See im dying
On this bed of thorns i pray
Sheets run red
And i stop breathing
As my angels fly away

Even if you've won this battle
And i surrendered in this fight
Keep in mind my sweetest lover

You will fall another night
