In Strict Confidence

I sat here holding my newborn Like I wept at Father's grave Tears of joy and tears of pain They say life is just a game

This is how the story goes
The chain of incarnation
We are passing on the grail of life
With every generation

Archangel
I'm calling for you
Archangel
I'm offering my soul to you
Archangel
I'm calling for you
Archangel!
There was a time I said that true

Ashes to ashes, dust to dust And no phoenix rises We are born so we shall die And fade into horizons

This is how the story goes
This is how the bloodline flows
Daylight leads to dawn
Until the light is gone

Archangel
I'm calling for you
Archangel
I'm offering my soul to you
Archangel
I'm calling for you
Archangel!
There was a time I said that true

Archangel...

I'm calling for you

I'm offering my soul to you
Archangel
I'm calling for you
Archangel!
There was a time I said that true

Archangel...
