Rain

In Strict Confidence

Thousand years have passed,
But we are still the same
All the worlds have burned,
But we resist the flame

Thousand years have passed,
But we are still right here
All the suns have crushed,
But we won't disappear

Pray for rain, endless rain
Wash away the human stain
Flood the land, flood the sky
In your screams all sinners die

Pray for rain, endless rain
Wash away my burning pain
Holy water is the cure
Resurrection of the pure

We are watchmen of the fate,
Witnessed life and death
We are shadows in the night,
Drinking your last breath

We are guards of heaven
We are sons of hell
Rise your purgatory
Strike the fire bell

Pray for rain, endless rain
Wash away the human stain
Flood the land, flood the sky
In your screams all sinners die

Pray for rain, endless rain
Wash away my burning pain
Holy water is the cure
Resurrection of the pure
