

Somewhere Else

In the Valley Below

There we step aside, traded all our history for lies
I try to make the most of it
But your glass is always empty, isn't it?
So what's a man to do?
When he's in love with someone who isn't you

Maybe it's safe to say
We're never gonna find our place that we dreamed of
The lights are turning gold
And baby I got somewhere else to go

Your head's a big balloon, casting shadows around the room
You let the demons in
You turned your friends to enemies to well
So what's a man to do?
When he's in love with someone, that isn't you

Maybe it's safe to say
We're never gonna find our place that we dreamed of
The lights are turning gold
And baby I got somewhere else to go

Don't know what you need, I told you but
You're only getting older
Don't know what your mother told you but
You're only getting older
Don't know what you love, I told you but
You're only getting older

Maybe it's safe to say
We're never gonna find our place that we dreamed of
The lights are turning gold
And baby I got somewhere else to go
Somewhere else to go
