

Strike up with the Dawn

In The Woods...

I keep pushing through
Chasing dreams of yesterday
But your times are gone
You live them through your son
Midnight has passed you by
My tomorrow is just beginning
Keep pushing
Youth has faded
We cannot hide the lines
Living through your progeny
Was this your destiny?
Midnight has passed you by
But my tomorrow is just beginning
Keep pushing
Have you succumbed?
Are you defeated?
Is that fire inside you gone?
My new chorus strikes up with the dawn!
Time is to take
Not foolishly give away
Keep pushing
