

Origin

In Vain

Whenever and wherever
Your inner essence extracts
Free flow of life energy
The karmic cycle of reaction

Wathcers of the mind
Enlightened masters
Mindfulness in its purest form
As light emanates from the sun
We remember the origin
And return to the source

In a present state
A state of no-mind
Here
Now
In the ceaseless present
Our existence is manifested

Our existence is manifested
Embrace the myriad of lights
And let your light shine through

Mind presence
Your inner-self stands ripe for the harvest
Cleansing your soul
