

Seekers of the Truth

In Vain

An inherited Collective
Force fed mind-patterns
But hidden inside
Their illusion
Nothing but lies

We deter
Their ideals
We won't accept
A doctrine that conceals reality

Because we are the seekers
of the truth

A vigorous strife towards redemption
An everlasting goal to reveal the truth
People cry out in search for a redeemer
We repel weakness and seek the truth

To live with passion
and fight for a purpose
Hearts filled with compassion
because we are the seekers of the truth
And can not compromise what we believe

The masses follow their own tail afraid to turn Indoctrinated to a dogma
Now they must face the shame

We will remain
True to our cause
To protect
Our undying
Legacy of truth
And to ignite an uprising

Because we are the seekers
of the truth

An everlasting goal to reveal the truth
People cry out in search for a redeemer
We repel weakness and seek the truth

To live with passion
and fight for a purpose
Hearts filled with compassion
because we are the seekers of the truth
And can not compromise what we believe /x2

(we believe, we believe, we believe...)

(...) To live with passion

And can not compromise what we believe.
