

A Bridge

Inara George

Are you lonely?
You're never alone
Are you counting every breath?
Aching for some time?
Just a little more time
Just a little more time
Are you lonely?

Can you hear me?
I'm talking out loud
Trying to understand
Just how it is you feel
But I don't want to say too much
I don't want to say too much, I just want to be here

Let's build a bridge from your window to mine
String a can to a can, you could call me anytime
Let's make a river and take it down to the sea
Let's build a bridge from your window to me

A wish for you
It's just a simple thing
I want to see you every day
I want to hear my children say your name
It's more a wish for me

Will you tell me?
I want to hear all your stories
You're always grabbing at your life
You're never missing what you need
Or that's always how it seems
You open up to anything, will you tell me?

Let's build a bridge from your window to mine
String a can to a can, I could call you anytime
Let's make a river and take it down to the sea
Let's build a bridge from your window to me
