

No Purity

Incendiary

Eerrr-ah!

Placing your blame on the other
And Pointing fingers for your struggles
Playing the victim
Complicit system
The evil eye
Cast from your white gaze
Is too blind to see, the house of esteem
Was built on the backs of slaves

No purity
Just inequality
No fucking purity
Just inequality
No purity!

A false story of pride
A coward's tale
From the mouth of those
Who watched their dreams all fail
Those values that you preach
Don't apply to yourself
Playing the victim, complicit system
Turn your back just like everybody else

No purity
Just inequality
No fucking purity
Just inequality

The fear
In those who hold everything
Begins when power slips
From their heads
From their heads
Slips from their fucking heads
