

Still Burning

Incendiary

Now my dark eyes never seen so clear
To look beyond everything you fear
Connect the past to a present you hate
You just shake your fucking head and walk away
I'm the one, I'm the one, I'm the one who Still believes there's something left deep inside you
There's no hope in an unclenched fist
There's no end when you believe in this

Still beating, still burning
Against the tide turning
Still beating, still burning
Fan the flame, stake your claim
Open your eyes we're one in the same
Still burning

Fan the flame!

Hearing voices in your head
Feeling tightness in the chest
A chip on your shoulder and the smile hid the rest
You can't cope, no you can't feel
We got to know some pain to show we're still here

There's no hope in an unclenched fist
There's no end when you believe in this
Still beating
Still burning
Still beating
Still burning
Still beating
Still burning
Still beating
Still burning
