Indecision

indivisible - we are sworn a pledge, a vow, a promise - we are sworn|
a pledge, a vow, a promise in times of need of consolation you're there like my conscience giving me strength like no one else I can feel you teaching me about myself I can feel you letting me know you are there you're my security- I bleed for no one else my destiny lies in your eyes - I can feel it, I can see it your security keeps me alive- I can feel it, I can see it
