

A Kid In The Playground

Indica

There was a kid in the playground, a head that once was crowned
After ten thousand days, still remember your face
Hailed was the king of the playground
The odd kid felt she was bound, she dug herself underground
A smile on his face, all ablaze, he said, "Burn the witch of the playground"

Rewind the time, behind it all, there is a kid who's about to fall
Rewind the time, I'll take you back, back in time

You will have a flashback, it's followed by a heart attack
After ten thousand days, still remember my face
Ding-dong, the witch is back

Rewind the time, behind it all, there is a kid who's about to fall
Rewind the time, I'll take you back, back in time

Rewind the time, behind it all, there is a kid who's about to fall
Rewind the time, I'll take you back, back in time

Danger, danger, could you be the one to burn us?
Stranger, stranger, you could be the one to burn us?

There was a kid in the playground
(There was a kid in the playground, there was a kid in the playground)
Hailed was the king of the playground
There was a kid in the playground, there was a kid in the playground
