

Crying Over Nothing

Indigo De Souza

Hey, it's just me
What's it take to be seen?
I swear I really haven't changed
Took a whole day to respond
And it kills me to move on
But I'm feeling you pull away
I'm feeling you pull away

I still love you
Like I did at the start
Barely surviving
I hate being apart

I'm crying again
Crying over nothing
Laying in my bed
Remembering you

Can you tell that I'm missing you?
I'm pretty sure that you can see right through
I don't ever wanna sway you, babe
I want you to do what you want to do
I guess I gotta get on with it
It's only hurting holding on to this
And I promise that I can get over you
Maybe someday we can just be friends

I still love you
Like I did at the start
Barely surviving
I hate being apart

I'm crying again
Crying over nothing
Laying in my bed
Remembering you
I'm crying again
Crying over nothing
Laying in my bed
Remembering you
