

Mistletoe

Indigo Girls

Hey I thought you'd know that a kiss under the mistletoe and a walk out through the snow

Angel can't you see,
stars, like lights through the trees are beckoning us to go

Everyone has gone to sleep
(please baby, please)
please be with me
please baby, please
please baby, please
just let this love be

Oh mr. bear's tucked in tight somewhere wouldn't it be sweet to sleep for a while

And to see this as a reason to bow to the seasons

And just give em time

Everyone has gone to sleep
(please baby, please)
please be with me
please baby, please
please baby, please

Just for now
just for love
while the yule fire burns on
just let this love be

Please baby, please
(wouldn't it be sweet to sleep for a while)
(wouldn't it be sweet to sleep for a while)
please baby, please
(wouldn't it be sweet to sleep for a while)

I thought you'd know
that a kiss under the mistletoe.
