

Yesterday Is History

Indra

Repeat baby after me
Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery
Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery, yeah yeah

You think that life has past you by, baby
And so you stop and wonder why
I've got some news for you
These things are not true

Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery
Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery

You're feeling bad about the past, baby
You think your bad luck's gonna last
Just when you think, you've lost it all
The other shoe's about to fall

Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery
Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery

You wanna leave
But you're afraid to go
You must remember
But you want me show

When you think it's time to split
You'd better go for it

Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery
Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery
Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery
Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery

Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery
Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery

Yesterday, history, tomorrow is a mystery
Yesterday, history, tomorrow is a mystery

Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery
Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery
Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery

Yesterday (yesterday, yesterday) is history, tomorrow is a mystery
Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery (mystery, mystery)
Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery
Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery
