

Pandemonium

Infected Rain

In the end who will prevail
Only chaos, chaos will prevail
In the end who will prevail
Only chaos, chaos will prevail

Mayhem reigns, it's the law of the land, land
Fire burns, cities crumble to sand
No fire, no rules, no one to obey
No fire, no rules, no one to obey
Disarray every day, every day

In the end who will prevail
Only chaos, chaos will prevail
In the end who will prevail
Only chaos, chaos will prevail

The road ahead seems endless and bleak
As we are trapped in a life that makes us sick
Makes us sick, makes us sick

The end is coming, we can feel it coming
The world is dying, we are all succumbing
Everything is shattered, nothing will stay
The sky is falling, the ground gives away

Our home, a never-ending fight for the throne
Our bodies are crippled, our will is gone

In the end who will prevail
Only chaos, chaos will prevail, chaos will prevail

No order, no rules, no one to obey, order, no rules, no one to obey
Disarray every day
No order, no rules, no one to obey, order, no rules, no one to obey
Disarray every day

In the end who will prevail
Only chaos, chaos will prevail
In the end who will prevail
Only chaos, chaos will prevail
Only chaos
