

Peace Inside

Infernal

I know you're sometimes frightened
Don't be
I know you're always fighting
For what you believe
But have some faith in me
There is no need
'Cause I will always be beside you

So tell me
Will you ever feel peace inside?
Will you some day feel complete?
Will you ever be at ease in life?
Or will you run eternally?

Why do I think
I know what you need?
I guess I should be asking you
What do you need?
But give me time and I will learn
Oh Yeah
And never again I'll think I know you

So tell me
Will you ever feel peace inside?
Will you some day feel complete?
Will you ever be at ease in life?
Or will you run eternally?

Well, I suppose I have a tendency to think I know it all
But sometimes I shouldn't assume anything
I should simply ask I know that now
Please forgive my ignorance

[Instrumental]

Now tell me
Will you ever feel peace inside?
Will you some day feel complete?
Will you ever be at ease in life?
Or will you run eternally?

Will you ever feel peace inside?
Will you some day feel complete?
Will you ever be at ease in life?
Or will you run eternally?
