

Sunrise

Infernal

I won't wait
Won't wait for sunrise
When the sun won't shine i realise
Yeah, then i realise
I want the sun to rise

(Repeat a couple of times)

I won't wait...

Lets count the hours spendin'
Lets count all the days
Ive tried to find a way
To leave the dark behind
...Something on your mind
Im begging(?) your touch & whisper
The wind in the night so swiftly rests with me
Along with my hope to decieve(?) me
(Back to top)
