

This Little Secret

Infernal

Forever thankful
Because you gave this to me
I was a handful
You saw potential in me
It was a struggle
To let my faith in you prevail
I tried rejecting
I was deflecting
But you were right, I was wrong
Anyone can be strong

This little secret, I feel it inside
It's like a sweetness I cannot describe
A little secret, a feeling of light
Warming me
This little secret, this little secret
This little secret, my little secret

To be a victim
Of your circumstances
It's like convicting yourself
Too little chances
It takes courage
To be the source of things in life
When you're rejecting
And you're deflecting
You'll be right when you're wrong
And you'll never be strong

This little secret, I feel it inside
It's like a sweetness I cannot describe
A little secret, a feeling of light
Warming me
This little secret, this little secret
This little secret, my little secret

A feeling of light
(Oh I yeah)
Ooooooh my little secret

This little secret, I feel it inside
It's like a sweetness I cannot describe
A little secret, a feeling of light
Warming me
This little secret, this little secret
This little secret, my little secret
