

Of Everlasting Hate

Infest

Fight, with hatred inside
With flames in our eyes
We're burning inside
We are the deathrash legion!

We salute you all
From the shadows beyond
Prepare for our call
We are the deathrash legion!

Can you feel the flames
Of our rage
Can you feel the flames
Of everlasting hate!!!

Spikes, leather and blood
Black flag upon all
It is what we are
We are the deathrash legion

No god and holy disgust
The whore and her son
I am the dechristianized one
We are the deathrash legion!

All these years we are the same
Keeping the flames alive
All of you who outgrew it
You have never been with us

It is a passion, it is love
It's a way of life
Something you'll never understand
Cause you're not born to fight!
