It's way too short, what's up with that skirt?
Why did you have to wear that on a windy day like today?
People are stealing glances at you, what's wrong with you,
It's embarrassing, what's wrong with you?
"Look at her", they're blatantly looking at you

You know one thing but not two
You think they're looking because you're pretty
Men are all wolves
You're not even worried, you're scoffing at me,
Making me into a narrow-minded man
Do you really not know?

Am I doing this because I like it?
Am I doing this to start a fight?
Even to me, you're so gentle and pretty
I like it if it's only in front of me,
Do this only in front of me
My insides are burning up because of you

I'm Running Into Fire
It's so hard to level with you,
Again today, our different opinions torture me
Stop being so stubborn, I'll try to trust you more

It's way too low-cut, what's up with showing all that skin?
Be careful when you stoop down low
You're gonna show everything underneath,
What's wrong with you, I can see everything

Who are you doing this for?

I can clearly see you're uncomfortable,
I can see that you feel awkward
You're putting yourself through trouble on purpose?
You're not even worried, you're scoffing at me,
Making me into a narrow-minded man
Do you really not know?

Am I doing this because I like it?
Am I doing this to start a fight?
Even to me, you're so gentle and pretty
I like it if it's only in front of me,
Do this only in front of me
My insides are burning up because of you

Your skirt looks shorter than the distance between you and me
Your skin exposure is deeper than our relationship
So guys keep hitting on you
I'm not just a narrow-minded guy who is jealous

You know one thing but not two
You think they're looking because you're pretty
Men are all wolves
You're not even worried, you're scoffing at me,
Making me into a narrow-minded man
Do you really not know?

Am I doing this because I like it?
Am I doing this to start a fight?
Even to me, you're so gentle and pretty
I like it if it's only in front of me,
Do this only in front of me
My insides are burning up because of you

Am I doing this because I like it?
Am I doing this to start a fight?
Even to me, you're so gentle and pretty
I like it if it's only in front of me,
Do this only in front of me
My insides are burning up because of you

Am I doing this because I like it?
Am I doing this to start a fight?
I like it if it's only in front of me,
Do this only in front of me
My insides are burning up because of you
