Because I listen to my heart, beat one by one
Because I listen to my heart heart heart
Listen to my heart heart

All the time I cannot re-experience just left an illusion behind
No No You will not disappear
I suffer, I feel so empty

Why Why…Why Why…Why Why…

Before the dawn…Before the dawn…
These are not destroyed feelings
Before the dawn…Before the dawn…
You feel me for sure

It will become true, I'm sure, step into
The chance I always dreamed of
A white night appears, Fly to my heart
I'll be there by your side (huh)

My voice does not reach you
Without realizing I'm looking for your shadow
No No I will not give up
I suffer, I feel so empty

Why Why…Why
Why…Why Why…
Before the dawn…Before the dawn…
I want to obtain these odd words
Before the dawn…Before the dawn…
I feel you for sure

When thinking of you I fall asleep
"I wanna" booming sounds make me crazy
Because I listen to my heart beat one by one
My stance is tired from waiting and slows down
In each time period your figure exists
Because I listen to my heart, heart, heart

Before the dawn
I will hold you tight with my hands
Before the dawn
You will feel the love for sure

(Before the dawn)
Close your eye and close your mind
I wait for you at the beginning of the road you cannot see yet
I will protect you no matter what happens…
Before you know, also your feelings
So you must love me
Once I hold you tight with my hands
I do not need any wishes
Once our feelings become one
That's right, this love will definitely be forever.
