Without Regret, I asked everything to the ground
That my feet endlessly touch
Failure, it's just something you go through
And passes by anyway, beautiful journeys

There's still a lot left to go, if the walls are high,
I'll break them down
I'll pass over time and take you,
You're the only one who has to trust me

The reality before you will become the past,
It's just a passing shower

Face the storm and go through it,
I will definitely win

Now go into the big world,
Though it's so far I can't even see it
Leave me alone, this is what I have to do,
Wherever the wind goes

If you really want it, you'll find it,
I will climb on the place you wanted
Until I protect it, I won't rest,
You're the only one who has to look at me

The hardships given to me make me stronger,
It's just momentary pain
Shorten the distance,
I will definitely overcome

Now go into the big world,
Though it's so far I can't even see it
Leave me alone, this is what I have to do,
Wherever the wind goes

I will do it for sure, you're the only one
Who can't be embarrassed of me
Even if it takes a bit longer

Even when the night is deep, the stars are shining
Even luck that used to escape me
Becomes my compass
It guides me only to uphill roads

Ridicules me even more, happy endings
Only come after emotions mixed with sadness
When it comes to me, I'll give it to you,
The last present that is thrown away without being needed

Now go into the big world,
Though it's so far I can't even see it
Leave me alone, this is what I have to do,
Wherever the wind goes
