I'm suffocating,
Trapped in this black fog
The blue stream
Turns into a black dirt water

At some point,
My shoulders are dripping wet
I have even let go
Of your small hands

Rain, stop falling,
I still have a lot to say
But you cruelly
Swallowed the sun

Even if the rain and wind blows,
I will find you
I'll win over this shower

Don't forget, don't forget,
I'll miss you too
It was short but like the shower
That fell from the clear sky

That girl
Very quickly and left
Just like a lie -
Come back

With the rain that comes and goes,
Falling however it likes
I'll erase this heartbreak,
I'll win over it This shower

This fog that came between us
Why isn't it going away like the day it rained
You probably don't know my tears hidden in the rain
You'll look for my arms again

In my drought-like life,
In my closed heart
You came down like sweet rain,
Drenching all my pain and sadness

Rain, stop falling,
It seems like the tears you shed
You cruelly
Took even that away

Even if the rain and wind blows,
I will find you
I'll win over this shower

Don't forget, don't forget,
I'll miss you too
It was short but like the shower
That fell from the clear sky

That girl
Come back

With the rain that comes and goes,
I'll erase this heartbreak,

This rain is cold but don't avoid it

I'll face it,
I'll run so I won't be too late
So this falling rain can evaporate
(This falling rain can evaporate)

Don't cry, don't cry like that,
I love you too
Even if the rain and wind blows,
Don't be shaken just like the pine trees

Pinky promise
That you'll trust me
I'll protect you,
Please come back

With the rain that comes and goes,
I'll erase this heartbreak,
I'll win over it
This shower
