

The Mymble's Daughter

Information Society

After all is said and done
I know I'm not the only one
Let's go out and stay all night
And never come back, never come back

Try to deny
You know you're perfect and so am I

I'm in love with the Mymble's Daughter
Never mind what's been agreed
I'm in love with the Mymble's Daughter
She's the only one I need

No one else could ever know
What lies behind your domino
Let's stay in and sleep all day
And never wake up, never wake up

Try to deny
You know you're perfect and so am I
Up with the sun
I'll let you sleep through the morning, morning, morning

I'm in love with the Mymble's Daughter
Never mind what's been agreed
I'm in love with the Mymble's Daughter
She's the only one I need

I'm in love with the Mymble's Daughter
Nothing in life is guaranteed, but
I'm in love with the Mymble's Daughter
She's the one who set me free

You make me feel perfect
You make me feel perfect
You make me feel perfect
You make me feel perfect, perfect

I'm in love with the Mymble's Daughter
Never mind what's been agreed
I'm in love with the Mymble's Daughter
She's the only one I need

I'm in love with the Mymble's Daughter
Nothing in life is guaranteed, but
I'm in love with the Mymble's Daughter
She's the one who set me free
