

Endless Machine

Ingested

Be fulfilled, stay hungry
Long years, wasted energy
This place is full of sycophants and fucking liars

We're the same animal in this cage
Just remember you're a name on a page
To navigate and thrive with the enemy
No sympathy, loose morals, zero empathy

Rubbing shoulders with the sun for too long
This devil's dance is moving to a different song
Many demons, distant faces with the same rule
Nine steps forward, one step back and now they ridicule me

Chewed up, spat out like scum
Grease the wheels for the filth till you're numb
Deep breath, bite down, closed eyes
Day to day, fall in line as they pulverise

Below the boot of a dynasty
Your prestige means nothing to me
I will forge my own destiny
The rule of three
Cementing our legacy

Who says your name beyond the grave?
A nameless face just to be enslaved

The tide of death and fractured dreams
Beneath it all, you carried me
The tide of death and fractured dreams
Wash me away
From this endless machine

The tide of death and fractured dreams
Beneath it all you carried me

Who says your name beyond the grave?
A nameless face just to be enslaved

Chewed up, spat out like scum
Grease the wheels for the filth till you're numb
Deep breath, bite down, closed eyes
Day to day fall in line as they pulverise

Below the boot of a dynasty
Your prestige means nothing to me
I will forge my own destiny
The rule of three
Cementing our legacy

Be fulfilled, stay hungry
Long years, wasted energy
This place is full of sycophants and fucking liars
