

Kingdoms of Sand

Ingested

Suffer the damned
Kingdoms of sand
Belies morality, motives becoming clear
Falsehood found in frailty, I see you fraught with fear

Crowns decay, become as dust
A dead smile betrays
Skin like glass, it breaks to the touch
Empire withers away

Our veins are running empty
But yours have turned to stone
We'd rather cut our nose to spite our face
And watch you die alone

I've held my tongue, I should rip out yours
On borrowed time and borrowed wealth
Take this rope, I'm at the end of mine
How much do you need to hang yourself?

You've had your fill and a pound of flesh
Consumed in ash, this is your success

Suffer the damned
Kingdoms of sand
Belies morality, motives becoming clear
Falsehood found in frailty, I see you fraught with fear

I've held my tongue, I should rip out yours
On borrowed time and borrowed wealth
Take this rope, I'm at the end of mine
How much do you need to hang yourself?

You've had your fill and a pound of flesh
Consumed in ash, this is your success

It's hard to see the positives when everything's so negative
We broke our backs, you profited, we suffer now because of it?
Fuck you, you traitors betrayed us and raped us
Played us and made out you wanted to save us
Terror, ruin, suffer the damned
Servants of bone and kingdoms of sand
Fuck you, you traitors betrayed us and raped us
Played us and think you can just walk away?

Terror, ruin, suffer the damned
Servants of bone and kingdoms of sand
Doom wrought by their own hand
Masters of nothing in kingdoms of sand
Terror, ruin, suffer the damned
Servants of bone and kingdoms of sand
Doom wrought by their own hand
Masters of nothing in kingdoms of sand

Terror, ruin
Suffer the damned
Terror, ruin

Kingdoms of sand
Terror, ruin
Suffer the damned
Terror, ruin
Kingdoms of sand
