

Pantheon

Ingested

So slow, your soul
Dissipating, desecrated
No place to go, they know
Gravitating, always waiting
Abhorrent, and venomous
From the void it's calling us
Infinite, and fathomless
The numberless screams will deafen us

Violence
Begets
Violence
A deeper meaning
Violence
Begets
Violence
Or am I dreaming?

The thought of all I have become
Behold the pantheon
The steps we climb are by design
The ceiling cracks again
The thought of all I could become
Behold the pantheon
The steps we climb are by, design

So slow, your soul
Dissipating, desecrated
No place to go, they know
Gravitating, always waiting
Abhorrent, and venomous
From the void it's calling us
Infinite, and fathomless
The numberless screams will deafen us

The worms and the flies
Crawl through my insides
Sad that you missed it
Talk, you don't listen
Easy decision
Never forgive them

Violence
Begets
Violence
A deeper meaning
Violence
Begets
Violence
Or am I dreaming?

The thought of all I have become
Behold the pantheon
The steps we climb are by design
The ceiling cracks again
The thought of all I could become
Behold the pantheon

The steps we climb are by, design

I walk on the path between worlds
Unleashed
Unburdened

I am unchanged
Unchanged

Digging through flesh to find me a deeper meaning
A masterpiece on a skin canvas
Violence, or am I only dreaming?
You'll find your peace in your own carcass

Violence
Begets
Violence
A deeper meaning
Violence
Begets
Violence
Or am I dreaming?

Violence
Begets
Violence
