

Starve the Fire

Ingested

There's only one truth that remains untold
Propaganda spreading quicker than the flames that we hold
You jump the gun and reveal your hand
No more turns, there's the proof you simply don't understand

Use your words and communicate
It's time to come clean
Just to hide the obscene
Shoved in the back by your kin
Who wants to fuck who first?
Disloyalty, deception
Clearly nurtured from birth

I need to starve the fire
You left us burning inside this hole
I need to starve the fire
This crisis now averted, we take control

I need to starve the fire
Before your lies engulf us all
I need to starve the fire
Choking on our knees, we start to crawl

There's only one truth that remains untold
Propaganda spreading quicker than the flames that we hold

Sort or abort it
Your method is clear
Stay hidden behind your ascendancy
Choose or be chosen
Decisive, decision
True colours unhidden by dependency

I need to starve the fire
Before your lies engulf us all
I need to starve the fire
Choking on our knees, we start to crawl

Don't make me sever my silence
Don't make me sever my silence

Those accusations, hanging by a thread
Your threats are so fucking hollow
You search excuses
You should be searching the beginning
Your yesterday burdens your tomorrow

Not free from sin, we wipe that grin
Before you pull the pin
Your redemption
Hindered by your cruel dissension

No turning back, it couldn't last
These bitter days have passed
Our reformation
Flourishing from course correction

Beguile and pig headed
You lash out like you're wounded
Misguided and deluded

So vile abdicated
You're baseless and unfounded
Confounded and surrounded
