

Where No Light Shines

Ingested

No mercy, no forgiveness
Detritus, signs of weakness
No hard feelings, left me reeling, you serious?
I can't stop this bleeding
No mercy, no forgiveness
Detritus. signs of weakness
No hard feelings, left me reeling, you serious?
I can't stop this bleeding

Cold shoulder, back is turning
Fading and so deserving
Back to my feet
I will never taste defeat
Callous, yet necessary
Forming the adversary
Back to my feet
I cannot accept defeat

I can't accept it
I won't accept it

Beyond a hope, where no gods remain
Where no light shines
Beyond a prayer, can I take the strain?
Where no light shines
Beyond a hope, where no gods remain
Where no light shines
Beyond a prayer, can I take the strain?
Where no light shines

No mercy, no forgiveness
Detritus, signs of weakness
No hard feelings, left me reeling, you serious?
I can't stop this bleeding

Cold shoulder, back is turning
Fading and so deserving
Back to my feet
I will never taste defeat
Callous, yet necessary
Forming the adversary
Back to my feet
I cannot accept defeat

I can't stop this bleeding

Crush
Me beneath the dirt
Down within my grave
Hopeless, worthless garbage not worth being saved
Down, down within my grave
Under all the dirt
In the ground where no light shines, I know that I'm to blame

Where no gods remain
Where no light shines
Beyond a prayer, can I take the strain?

Where no light shines
Beyond a hope, where no gods remain
Where no light shines
Beyond a prayer, can I take the strain?
Where no light shines

Are you serious? I can't stop this bleeding
No mercy, no forgiveness
Detritus, signs of weakness
No hard feelings, left me reeling, you serious?
I can't stop this bleeding
