

He Will Provide

Inglorious

Another human sacrifice
We raise a glass for those who've died
Hear me fear me
We fan the flames we turn the tides
The people run the children hide

We're waiting for heavenly father to rise
And he will burn the sky sky tonight
He will provide

His mantra must not see the light
Their rebel hearts quick to abide
Hear me fear me
The innocent have turned away
They're waiting for their judgement day

We're waiting for heavenly father to rise
And he will burn the sky sky tonight
He will provide
We're waiting for heavenly father to rise
And he will burn the sky sky tonight
He will provide

We're waiting for heavenly father to rise
And he will burn the sky sky tonight
He will provide
We're waiting for heavenly father to rise
And he will burn the sky sky tonight
He will provide
