

High Flying Gypsy

Inglorious

Well, he's a high flying gypsy
Got no need to settle down
He wears a coat made out of leather and a hat he calls a crown
He's always running from somebody left somebody stumbled off
And when they find him they would tell him that you won't run anymore

Something's hidden he lies behind the scenes
But this magic is real and you will see
That he might just save your life

You see the high flying gypsy
He's the man hung from the tree
And when you get him you will realize that he's a talisman you seek He's always drinking from the bottle
Burning candles from both ends only thing he can remember is when last he saw his friend

Something's hidden he lies behind the scenes
But this magic is real and you will see
That he might just save your life

He's the high flying gypsy in the pack there's only one
And he will help you if you need it
He's never been outdone
Yes, his magic is real you will agree
Cause he might just save your life

Ooh who ooh...
Save your eyes!
