

Liar

Inglorious

Salvation, it's what's inside of you
Damnation, eternally to
I can see, a life without you
I'm fine on my own
Now I'm losing hope

You're a liar
If you feel like dying
That's the way it was meant to be
And you're a liar
Well, it all transpires
Only truth can set you free

You sold me, you left me high and dry
You told me, that I would be alright
I can't stand, you acting out
And I know when you lie
Coz you're moving your mouth

You're a liar
If you feel like dying
That's the way it was meant to be
And you're a liar
Well, it all transpires
Only truth can set you free

You're a liar
If you feel like dying
That's the way it was meant to be
And you're a liar
Well, it all transpires
Only truth can set you free

You're a liar
If you feel like dying
That's the way it was meant to be
And you're a liar
Well, it all transpires
Only truth can set you free
