

Ride To Nowhere

Inglorious

Watching through the window
As they're coming your way
Heart is pounding searching
For your great escape
Why are they here, what do they know
Why are they flying so low

I see demons in their eyes
Coming for your live
Take me to their shrine, oh
We're on a ride to nowhere

This the final curtain
On your judgement day
Never gonna tell them
Though it's making you shake
I can see darkness in their eyes
This is the worst the worst surprise
Of my life

I see demons in their eyes
Coming for your live
Take me to their shrine, oh
We're on a ride to nowhere
We're on a ride

Hold on tight
Fear subsides
Won't survive

I see demons in their eyes
Coming for your live
Take me to their shrine
And I see demons in their eyes
Coming for your live
Take me to their shrine
We're on a ride to nowhere
We're on a ride

Demon eyes
Demon eyes
Demon eyes
