

Taking The Blame

Inglorious

They know you, you move at night
You just ain't right
You are wrong this time
It's my reputation, oh
You're never gonna stand in line
Live a life of crime
Let your freak flag fly
And what you been talking, oh

Better hurry get back from where you came
I'm sure by now they know your name

And I ain't taking the blame
Taking the blame
And it's high time hunny that I go
Ahead and ruin your day
And I ain't taking the blame
Taking the blame
And it's high time hunny that I go
Ahead and ruin your day
Oh baby, yeah

Oh, not a day goes bye
Without them on side
No reason or rhyme
For speculation, oh
Whithin' a second she be on her way
And never listen to a word you say
And don't worry, don't feel ashamed
Ain't discrimination, oh

Better hurry get back from where you came
I'm sure by now they know your name

And I ain't taking the blame
Taking the blame
And it's high time hunny that I go
Ahead and ruin your day
And I ain't taking the blame
Taking the blame
And it's high time hunny that I go
Ahead and ruin your day
Oh baby, no
Oh yeah, right

And I ain't taking the blame
Taking the blame
And it's high time hunny that I go
Ahead and ruin your day
And I ain't taking the blame
Taking the blame
And it's high time hunny that I go
Oh baby, no
Oh no, hey
