

Tomorrow

Inglorious

I made a mess and now I know my time is done
I should have paid attention shouldn't have gave up
I got a hunger and it's really got a hold
I should have made intentions known

Instead of taking her home, oh, taking her home
I should have left that girl alone

Tomorrow must be another way
You're tired of me and my mistakes
Tomorrow (I know) now it's time to say
That I'll be gone, gone away

Another piece another puzzle I undone
Tomorrow comes but then I will not be the one
Who's taking you home
Ah, taking you home
I should have left that girl alone

Tomorrow must be another way
You're tired of me and my mistakes
Tomorrow (I know) now it's time to say
That I'll be gone, gone away

And another question
Aimed in my direction
I never wanted it to be this way

Tomorrow must be another way
You're tired of me and my mistakes
Tomorrow (I know) now it's time to say
That I'll be gone, gone away

Tomorrow must be another way
You're tired of me and my mistakes
Tomorrow (I know) now it's time to say
That I'll be gone, gone away
Oh...
