Unaware

Inglorious

All that you knew is hidden deep inside
I will help you swallow all your pride
To a place unknown at no time of day
I am falling now to the place you lay
Oh, yeah-yeah

Standing in the road and my eyes are closed
I will see you there, the unaware
Looking for what's right and a final light
In a bed we lie, it's ours tonight

I hear you're humming the song we used to play
Don't see it coming, can't run, there's no escape
No time to think out loud
It must happen now!
Ain't no going back
It's the last attack

Standing in the road and my eyes are closed
I will see you there, the unaware
Looking for what's right and a final light
In a bed we lie, it's ours tonight

Standing in the road and my eyes are closed
I will see you there, the unaware
Looking for what's right and a final light
In a bed we lie, it's ours tonight

Standing in the road and my eyes are closed
I will see you there, the unaware
Saved yeah!...
