

You're Mine

Inglorious

You ain't gonna wait 'till the day does die
You warned me about the darker side
My hands do shake
And the moon does rise
When the black and stars tonight
Your lips don't lie
They always win
I read your mind
You're built for sin

You told me once
You told me twice
You know my name
Put out the lights
You hunt me down
Don't act surprised
You said you're mine tonight
You're mine, you're mine tonight

Your draw me away all those years wasting time
I shelter you come alive
I waited for you this you will see
Body whispers come to me
My times ran out and you see
You set a trap

You told me once
You told me twice
You know my name
Put out the lights
You hunt me down
Don't act surprised
You said you're mine tonight
You're mine tonight

Your lips don't lie but they always win
I read your mind you're foreseen
I say you're mine

You told me once
You told me twice
You know my name
Put out the lights
You hunt me down
Don't act surprised
You said you're mine tonight
You're mine tonight

You told me once
You told me twice
You know my name
Put out the lights
You hunt me down
Don't act surprised
You said you're mine tonight
You're mine tonight
You're mine tonight

You're mine
You're mine tonight
You're mine
You're mine tonight, hey
